Narrative

Date: 07/26/2024

Time: 19:10 hours

Location: Portland Road, Highlands, NJ

On July 26, 2024, at approximately 19:10 hours, I responded to a report of a motor vehicle crash with the involved vehicle leaving the scene. Upon arrival, I activated my body-worn camera and made contact with the reporting party, identified as Marissa Koziar. Ms. Koziar stated that her vehicle, a 2021 Toyota bearing New Jersey registration L57SZF, had been struck.

Upon inspection, I observed fresh damage to the vehicle, including a broken driver-side mirror and dents and scratches on both the driver-side door and the rear passenger door. Additionally, there was visible paint transfer in black and white.

A male witness who was walking his dog on Portland Road provided a description of the suspect vehicle. He reported seeing a white SUV driven by a white female with blondish hair. The witness observed the vehicle reversing down Hillside Avenue before continuing east on Portland Road, ultimately making a left turn into the East Manor Square condominium complex. The vehicle then stopped, reversed, and struck Ms. Koziar's vehicle before continuing into the complex.

I subsequently located a white four-door SUV in the East Manor Square complex, bearing New Jersey registration A45UEN. The vehicle exhibited fresh damage consistent with that observed on Ms. Koziar's vehicle, including silver paint transfer, dents, and black smear marks. It is noteworthy that the hood of the vehicle was warm to the touch.

While examining the vehicle, I was approached by a female, later identified as Olga Podlog, a resident of 22 East Manor Square. Ms. Podlog inquired about the reason for my presence, to which I explained the situation. During our interaction, I detected a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage emanating from Ms. Podlog's person. I also noted that her eyes appeared watery and bloodshot, and her speech was slurred.

Ms. Podlog confirmed that the vehicle belonged to her. When questioned about the damage, she claimed that a box truck had struck her vehicle earlier in Brooklyn, NY. She denied being involved in the incident on Portland Road. However, her account was inconsistent, as she initially stated that she was unsure if her vehicle had been struck in Brooklyn, only noticing the damage upon her return home.

I requested Ms. Podlog's insurance information and asked her to accompany me to my patrol vehicle, parked on Portland Road. While reviewing her documents, Ms. Podlog stated that she had returned home from Brooklyn approximately an hour prior. The witness, however, confirmed that the suspect vehicle closely resembled Ms. Podlog's and that it had arrived in the complex much more recently.

When asked if she had consumed any alcohol upon returning home, Ms. Podlog repeatedly denied having done so. Based on the witness testimony and Ms. Podlog's inconsistent statements, I suspected her involvement in the crash and potential impairment.

I administered the Standardized Field Sobriety Tests (SFSTs) on a level, debris-free driveway. The first test was the Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus (HGN), during which I observed six indicators of impairment: lack of smooth pursuit, distinct and sustained nystagmus at maximum deviation, and onset of nystagmus prior to 45 degrees.

Next, I instructed Ms. Podlog to perform the Walk and Turn Test (WAT). Despite clear instructions and demonstration, she began before being told to start, took approximately fifteen steps instead of the instructed nine, did not count her steps aloud, and failed to walk heel-to-toe. These observations necessitated multiple explanations and demonstrations of the test.

The final SFST was the One Leg Stand (OLS). Ms. Podlog was unable to keep her hands by her side or look down at her feet as instructed. Additionally, when asked to recite the English alphabet without singing, Ms. Podlog was unable to do so correctly, despite multiple attempts. It should be noted that Podlog indicated that she has an associate's degree.

Based on my observations and the clues of impairment present during the SFSTs, I concluded that Ms. Podlog was under the influence of alcohol. I informed her of her arrest for operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated. She was placed in double-locked handcuffs behind her back without incident and transported to headquarters in marked unit 1706.

During transport, the interior of the patrol vehicle was permeated with the odor of an alcoholic beverage. Upon arrival at headquarters, Ms. Podlog was read the New Jersey Attorney General's Standard Statement for Motor Vehicle Operators (N.J.S.A. 39:4-50.2e) and informed of the legal requirement to submit breath samples for testing. Ms. Podlog refused to comply. Ms. Podlog was explained that her answer was not acceptable and that the law requires her to submit samples of her breath for breath testing. If she does not answer, or answer with anything other than "yes" she will be charged with refusal. Podlog was asked again if she would submit to breath testing and her response was "no".

Following processing, Ms. Podlog was released to a sober party and issued a pending court appearance in the Highlands Municipal Court. In addition to a summons for N.J.S.A. 39:4-50 (Driving While Intoxicated), Ms. Podlog was cited for the following offenses:

1317-E24-000752 for DWI
1317-E24-000753 for Reckless Driving
1317-E24-000754 for Failure to Report Accident
1317-E24-000755 for Refusal to Submit to Chemical Testing
1317-E24-000756 for Leaving Scene with Accident Involved.
