On the above date and time, Millburn police officers received police intelligence that the above vehicle was owned by Iman Barnes and she had an outstanding NCIC warrant out of the city of Orange (Warrant No.: W2024000216). Ofc. Reid located the vehicle at the Short Hills Mall "E" parking lot and performed a motor vehicle stop of the vehicle on JFK Parkway South. The vehicle was operated by Ms. Barnes and Nicole Goshay was seated in the front passenger seat (See Ofc. Reid's Supplemental Report).

The Bloomingdale's store at the Short Hills Mall then reported two female subjects had committed a shoplifting in their store. I responded to the Bloomingdale's store and met with loss prevention officer Jeremy Cruz. Mr. Cruz then stated he received a call from a store employee who was working in the store's sunglass section and she reported two female subjects had selected and concealed three pairs of sunglasses from a display shelf. Upon further investigation, it appeared that Ms. Barnes had concealed one pair of sunglasses and Ms. Goshay had concealed three pairs of sunglasses on their persons.

I then reviewed CCTV footage with Mr. Cruz and observed with him two black females approached the above mentioned sunglass display. One was wearing a black hoodie, black pants, black sunglasses and was later identified as Iman Barnes. The other was wearing a brown coat with white tassels and red sneakers and was later identified as Nicole Goshay. We then observed each subject select the above listed stolen/recovered sunglasses from the display (serial #'s 8056262084007, 8056262082898, 8059820796466 and 8056597951012, total value $2,061.06), conceal them inside of their clothing and walked away from the area. Mr. Cruz further observed they both then exited the store toward the level one mall exit and made no attempt to pay for the merchandise.

I then secured Mr. Cruz into the backseat of my vehicle (Patrol Veh. #5) and I performed a show up with him at the scene of the above mentioned traffic stop. After performing the show up, Mr. Cruz positively identified Ms. Barnes and Ms. Goshay as the suspects that stole the above mentioned sunglasses (See attached Show Up Form). I then transported Mr. Cruz back to Bloomingdale's and he provided me with a written statement. Det. Derosa then returned the above listed stolen sunglasses to Mr. Cruz and he ran their serial numbers in the store's system and confirmed they all belonged to the store. All of the sunglasses still had their price tags and security sensors affixed to them. Mr. Cruz will be providing police with a DVD of the CCTV footage of this incident as well as photographs of the sunglasses that were recovered.

I then returned to Police Headquarters where Ms. Barnes and Ms. Goshay were searched by Springfield police officer Danielle Kahora #646. Upon searching Ms. Barnes, four additional Chanel and Burberry sunglasses were found concealed on her person as follows: 8056262084007, 8059820796374, 8056597943642, 8056262084007, total value of $1,454.00. Said items were secured and I placed them into evidence along with Dewalt sheers that were recovered from her vehicle. Ofc. Kahora had also searched Ms. Goshay and found two additional Burberry sunglasses concealed on her person as follows: 8056597225083 and 8056262082478, total value 549.00. Said items were secured and I placed them into evidence as well.

Ms. Barnes and Ms. Goshay were charged with shoplifting by concealment, receiving stolen property, conspiracy to commit a shoplifting. Ms. Barnes also received an additional charge of possession of burglary tools. Both were given court dates of 6/6/24 at the Essex County Superior Court. Both were then taken into custody by Orange Police Department detectives for outstanding warrants and prior crimes committed in their jurisdiction.
